Municipal Elections Result in a Big Surprise.

Elections are notoriously uncertain, and the Municipal Election held here on Tuesday proved no exception. The interest of the ratepayers was possibly keener than ever before judging from the fact that the record number of one-hundred-and-six voters recorded, and possibly it is from the fact that an especially large number of votes was polled that many found themselves away out in their calculations. The election for the Mayoralty, for instance, was generally conceded would be close, and hardly anyone expected to see such a variance between the vote polled for the respective candidates. The ratepayers unmistakably showed their desire for a change. The election for Councillors was equally surprising. But as stated in our last issue, it is impossible to forecast the result, and it is equally impossible to give reasons for the election why one was elected in preference to another. In this election it must be remembered there was no scheme before the public that affected them particularly, and consequently it seemed to depend upon the popularity of the different candidates. If the ratepayers, however, were divided upon their choice of candidates, we are sure they are united in the opinion that it is good to see the tangle unravelled and the way now clear for transacting of the town's business a matter of considerable interest and importance. The ratepayers will get more sympathy and support, and we wish them all success in their work. The vote polled on Tuesday was recorded as follows:—

For Mayor.
J. W. Reid	96
R. H. Robertson	35
For Councillors.
A. Swennumson	32
A. Rolfe	47
J. W. Reid	41
R. S. Beattie	40
C. H. Bell	35
F. W. Brown	31
A. C. Russell	29
A. H. Patterson	22
J. Politt	13
Five ballots split. 106 votes recorded.

KEEP AHEAD OF THE TIMES.

The success which attended the Medicine Hat Fair and Stampede in 1917 has been an incentive to those responsible to put forth a more united effort to make the 1918 Fair and Stampede the greatest summer fair attraction in Western Canada. The exhibits of live stock will be well worth seeing as the best horses, cattle, sheep and swine that are produced will be here for your inspection. A poultry exhibit of one thousand birds is already assured. The latest and best exhibits in every department will be displayed, so that visitors will be able to see just what their neighbors and the country generally are producing.

Our entertainment programme is very complete. For the Kiddies we have provided an Eli Farris Wheel and the ever welcome Merry-Go-Round three horses abreast, all jumpers, cost less $13,000. For the grown-ups we have secured a very complete midway, consisting of Ted Meis Midways, Illusion Shows, Williams Temple of Music, Circus Side Shows and many others, all new and novel and absolutely free from all objectionable features. Platform attractions direct from the New York Hippodrome, horse races, baseball, and the largest stampede ever staged in Western Canada.

In these strenuous days of anxiety not only on the part of individuals but on all the civilized world, a break in the every day routine enables one

Police Magistrate and Constable Have Strenuous Time.

During the past two weeks the number of cases brought before Police Magistrate Brown for adjustment have been extremely numerous and of a very diverse nature. They included claims for wages, infractions of the Motor Vehicle Act, Theatre Act, and also matters in connection with the Military Service Act, included among which were several affecting individuals who were apparently without any useful occupation. Constable English has had much to do with the recent business-like air of the police court and his activity in various portions of his big territory appears to be getting results.

The following cases have recently been dealt with:—

J. C. Hestherly—For not having a licensed moving picture machine operator at Burdett was fined $50.00 and costs.

John Fair—Operating a moving picture machine without a license was fined $10 and costs.

Wages case—M. Michoyak sued V. Bowes for $107. Verdict given for appellant for sum named with costs of action. The appellant was represented in this case by F. B. McKenna, barrister, of Bow Island.

A. C. Breimer, of Winnifred, for operating a car without a license was fined the costs of the court.

Louis Palmeraux for running a car without number plates was also fined the costs of court.

Wages case—Speaker sued Schwalbe and Schwalbe for $200 and costs. Verdict for the respondent also laid claim to pay the costs.

Guy Alexander, of Burdett, was charged with, not being employed in any useful occupation. Fined $25 and costs and told to get busy.

Harold Liddle, of Burdett, was charged with running a car without proper lights and fines the costs of the court. He was also charged with kicking a Chinaman's light out at Burdett and fined $10 and costs.

Fred Campbell was brought up under the Military Service Act and asked to produce evidence of his age. As he did not have this with him he was given ten days to procure same.

Severian Leskie for failing to report under the Alien Enemy Act was fined $5 and costs.

A case brought by Egan against Chapman for inducing a dog to go after horses was dismissed. In this A. F. Werts appeared for the prosecution and F. B. McKenna for the defence.

Jas. Kohner, of Winnifred, for operating a motor car without number plates was fined $20 and costs.

E. B. Henry brought up on a charge of assault was fined $20 and costs.

Philip Heinrich, employed by Wayne Johnston, was charged with evading the Military Service Act. This man was born in Saskatchewan and had never registered. He was given the choice of serving five years in the pen at Edmonton or donning the Kilt uniform. His decision was quick for the uniform.

A case that created some interest was that of J. W. Hurd vs. W. E. Kincaid, of Seven Persons. Kincaid was charged with defamatory libel. Mr. Hurd was disposed to take a lenient view of the case and on the accused making a public apology and stating that his remarks were malicious and false the magistrate allowed him to go on payment of the costs.

Return to their respective calling and take on anew their duties of citizenship—so pack up your troubles and come along and enjoy a well earned holiday—you owe this not only to your city and district, but you owe it to YOURSELF.

Ample eating and sleeping accommodation at reasonable rates is provided and everything for the comfort of visitors has been arranged. Keep the dates in mind, July 13th, 14th and 20th, 1918.

Admits German Fleet Can't

Close English Channel

"Suicide" is the word used by the German naval authorities to describe what it would mean for the Kaiser's navy to attempt to interfere with the transport of allied troops.

According to German papers considerable irritation has been caused in Germany by the rapidity with which England has been throwing men into France, and criticism has been directed at the admiralty. In vigorous defence, Rear Admiral Carl Hollweg points out that the activity of the German navy is subject to certain geographical limits.

"A voluntary attempt to remove these limitations," he argues, "would signify a heroic but useless suicide for the German fleet. The distance from German harbors is too great."

for the regular and frequent attacks which alone could cause continuous interruption of Channel traffic. A small German ship cannot long remain in the Channel, for submarines and mines would reap a rich harvest.

Even German submarines, according to their commanders, writes Capain von Kuhlwater in the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger," find that attacking transports is especially difficult in the Channel.

Care of Young Stock

Summer

The calf shows very quickly the effects of poor care, and this often occurs during the summer months because of the pressure of other work, although it is really much eas-er to keep a calf thrifty in summer than in winter. Calves grown on farms should have grass pasture provided for them and should be fed some grain, preferably oats, during the first five months of their life.

aking them from the cow and raising them by hand on skim milk, you are preventing them obtaining butterfat, which is a natural part of the food of a young animal. You must replace this, insofar as it can be replaced, by the use of a grain rich in oil fed to the young animal. The grass, the grass itself, taking the place of the butter fat in milk to a small extent. A calf grown upon skim milk, grass, and a small amount of oats will be a profitable, healthy, strong and rapid growing animal, while a stunted calf will require much more feed next winter to get him started towards making good gains.—G. E. Norton, Colorado Agricultural College

Obituary.

Narciss Hamel passed away at his home, nine miles south of Burdett, on June 11th. Although his health had been failing for the past two years his death has been a sad blow to his wife and family.

Born in St. John, Quebec, June 1st, 1856, he moved to Hudson Bay with his family in 1858. He married Colina Labelle, whose union has been blessed with twelve children, ten of whom are living and were present at the funeral. In 1884 he moved to Grand Forks, N. D., where he engaged in farming, and in 1890 he came west with his family to Mathias where opportunities were more plentiful and he could see his grandchildren properly settled. As the years rolled by and the country became more settled up in 1894 he moved to Alberta accompanied by five of his children, arriving at Burdett on June 11th, ten years to the exact date of his death. His one great desire was to see his children settled and happy, and by his loving and peaceableness advice he accomplished this. Six of his children live near him, Leo, Eugene, and Theodore, Mrs. Wm. Scott and Mrs. Elmer of Burdett, and Mrs. H. A. Smith of Bow Island. The other children are located in the States. Frank at Elkhart, N. D.; William at Crookston, Minn.; Fred Pleasant, Minn.; N. D.; and Mrs. L. Gagnon at Chester, Mont. Besides his wife and children he leaves to mourn his loss two brothers at Hamt. Minn., four sisters, Mrs. R. Poulton, Hamt. Minn.; Mrs. Peter Margaret, Vancout, B.C.; Mrs. Joseph Hamel, Davidson, Sask.; the last two mentioned being present at the funeral.

Although the deceased had 71 grandchildren, 62 of whom are still living, and eight great-grandchildren, the funeral, at which the Rev. McCreedy officiated, took place on June 15, from St. Michael's church, Bow Island, there being a very large number of sympathizers present.

The pallbearers included Messrs. Frost and Pomeroy, Messrs. Halsey and Fortin of Grassy Lake, and Mr. August Tremblay of Winst-Tred, and Mr. Labadie of Medicine Hat.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Narciss Hamel wishes to thank her sisters and family for their sympathy and for the floral tributes offered at the recent death and funeral of her husband.

Local and General

Quite a few of our citizens were considerably disappointed at being deprived of their annual sports this year. Whilst it is true the conditions at the present time do not warrant going to any considerable expenditure in the matter yet many contended that it would have done no harm to have given the people of the surrounding country a little program. The committee's idea in withholding the sports this year was to not divert any of our money, but it is doubtful if this policy is depression exists as at present. This is the time when the change from the ordinary routine would be especially welcome.

Masonic Lodges were instituted at Foremost and Neimiskam last week. Messrs. Bell, MacWilliams, Stewart and Robertson represented Bow Island at Foremost and report a very successful night. Unfortunately time prevented their attendance at Neimiskam the next day, but here also it is reported the institution of the Lodge passed off extremely well.

Mrs. Agar and family left on Wednesday with Mr. Agar to take up their residence at Burdett. We regret to see them depart, for both of them have been extremely active in various circles in town and they will be missed. There is this comforting reflection, however, that their return may be looked for at some future date.

W. Anderson returned on Monday from a visit to the Cardston quarry where he went with the object of leasing some hay land. His attempt, however, was unsuccessful. He states that the land there is slightly, but there is very little hay, and he thinks there is no possibility of getting any.

T. R. Blaine left on Wednesday on a trip to New Brunswick.

In our report of the proceedings of the Council of Forty-Mile in issue of June 21st it stated that the assessor's salary was $605.70. This should have read $105.00.

Mr. Parker, school inspector, and Mr. Barnes of the Department of Education, Edmonton, addressed a meeting here on Tuesday night in the Odd-fellows' hall in the interests of school consolidation. Mr. R. H. Robertson occupied the chair. The attendance was not a large one, and was comprised mainly of the residents north and west of town. Apparently it is the desire of the department to create Bow Island into a consolidated school district, and with this purpose in view propose to make three units, dividing the present school district of Bow Island into two and adding Cochrane Hill. Mr. Barnes explained that at present the Department could not compel children to go to school beyond the three mile limit but by consolidating the district their power could be extended. After this the speaker was questioned closely by many of those present, and from the general comment made the matter of consolidation seemed to find favor with most of them. It will be taken up, however later on by the school trustees and possibly consolidation will be accomplished.

At the meeting for consolidation of this school district on Tuesday night the impression seemed to be obtained from the remarks made by the speaker that the residents of Bow Island were averse to the project. This, we believe, is contrary to the facts. For one thing the matter has never been put before them in its proper light and consequently has not aroused the discussion and interest that it might have done. One thing we are sure of, that the residents of Bow Island are quite sincere in their desire to work in harmony with our friends in the country, and had the meeting not been so suddenly sprung upon them the attendance of townspeople would have been a great deal better. Bills for the meeting were not distributed until Saturday and Monday being a holiday many had left town for the week-end. As it happens the scheme outlined by Mr. Barnes necessitates very few changes and perhaps County Board is agreeable there appears to be but little standing in the way of its accomplishment.

Another well was drilled in last week upon the farm of Mr. Thurston south of Bow Island, and we understand an excellent flow of water was obtained.

V. L. Gilbert, R.A., R.D., will take charge of the services at the United Church on Sunday next at eight p.m. Cochrane Hill at four p.m.

The members of the local Orange Lodge are making arrangements for a big picnic at Jos. Mitchell's farm on July 12th. Contingents of Orangemen are expected from Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, Redcliff, Burdett and Winst-Tred. There will be several speakers, including Rev. A. D. Richard of Medicine Hat.

The following dispositions were made by the Executors of the late J. L. Galt:—A. MacDougall and R. J. McDonald, Winst-Tred; P. Nagelski, K. M. Holbert, and J. K. Millar, Bow Island; W. E. Turner and J. Donaldson, Burdett; and H. Zuberli, Winst-Tred. All allowed till November 1st.

Rev. C. Bishop left this week to take up his new appointment at Ponoka. His Bishop, who has been staying with friends at Coalville, will join him en route. To both of them we wish the greatest success in their new location.

The crops are still standing "at attention" awaiting for general moisture to arrive and relieve them from their present predicament. The situation is serious enough and but little can be expected from this year's seedling. Nevertheless, and in spite of the continued drought, there are still some crops in the district that will yield their owners some return, and a heavy rainfall would help these not a little. The greatest anxiety of the farmers, however, is relative to feed for their stock, and the present high price of this commodity is not doing anything to afford relief. There is, of course, always the hope with us that something may turn up and should a good rain come the matter of feed for the stock should be solved to a great extent.

The following articles were despatched today (Friday) by the Bow Island Hotel:—9 shirts, 23 pyjamas, 22 pairs of trousers, 40 flannel shirts, 10 pillow cases, 4 slings, 32 bed-sheets, 2 top, handkerchiefs, 74 p.p., 1 sweater, 32 amp. covers, 20 cotton binders, 9 vringers, and 22 pairs socks.

The Big Amalgamated Fair and Stampede to be held in Lethbridge July 22nd to 27th presents an attraction which will sell any previous record of this nature held in Canada. Every day will be a big day from the time the opening parade is started on Tuesday morning until the curtain is rung down on Saturday night.

The ladies of All Saints' Church will meet on Thursday of next week at the residence of Mrs. J. Rushworth's.

Divine service will be held at All Saints' Church on Sunday next at 11 a.m. No evening service.

On the north-west quarter 10-10-12, west of 4, in the Municipal District of Bow Island No. 96, on MAY 17th, 1918, one iron grey mare, about four years old, about 1200 lbs. weight, branded with three C's on left hip, last three C's connected on left hip.
H. C. Sissons, Poundkeeper, Burdett, Alberta

Burdett.

Messrs. Hardie and Kientzel, the well known local well-drillers, have just recorded another success at the farm of W. Andrews, where on Saturday last a good flow of water was obtained at a depth of 630 feet, averaging about ten barrels per hour. The water is stated to be of an excellent quality and can be used for both drinking and cooking. It view of the prevailing drought it is certainly cheering news to hear of these many successes in deep wells and the probability is that many of our farmers will make arrangements for a similar supply.

We regret very much to have to announce the death at Lethbridge on Sunday last of Miss Ruth, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Elford, living south of Burdett. It appears she returned from the Mount Royal College about a week ago and complained of not being well. As she gradually got worse she was taken to Lethbridge, where, as already stated she died on Sunday. The deceased girl was only thirty years of age and was of an exceptionally bright and winning nature. She graduated from the ninth grade at Medicine Hat with honors and thence went to Mount Royal at Calgary, where her progress in her studies marked her as being well above the average and where her work was being watched by her instructors with more than usual attention.

The Times, we believe, is only expressing the sentiment of the whole community in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Elford in their great bereavement its sincere sympathy and regret for the great loss which they have sustained.

The funeral of the young girl took place at Lethbridge on Thursday, from the Wesley Methodist Church at two p.m., the service being conducted by the Rev. C. E. Craig.

The ladies of the L.D.S. Church held a meeting of the Relief Society on Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. A. H. Rygg.

Mrs. A. W. Fletcher left on Saturday for Magrath to spend a few days with friends and relatives.

Mr. Chamberlain, manager of the Drilling Co., Calgary, has been down here this week looking over the various gas wells now under way.

Geo. Lomas returned home from Medicine Hat last week. Although somewhat improved in his condition he is still far from being strong, but we hope the next few weeks will see him fully restored.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderschott left last week to visit friends at St. Thomas, Ontario.

J. W. Elliott was in Lethbridge this week and appeared before the Medical Board for inspection.

Misses Lottie and Ella Searles of Lethbridge have been visiting their sister Mrs. M. R. Rygg.

Miss F. Brown has taken a position in the local post-office.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher and Miss Roslin returned to Lethbridge last week-end. Mr. Fletcher returned on Monday leaving the ladies behind for a few days.

There is nothing new to report concerning the condition of the crops. The dry weather still continues and consequently no progress can be reported. Many of the farmers have given up all hope apparently of seeing a crop this year, but there are still some cases where a good soaking rain would do good and possibly result in a fair yield.

Pound Notice.

Mr. Howard Platt, who has been holding meetings and lecturing in the interests of the United Grain Growers returned this week. His circuit embraced north of Edmonton and west of Calgary. He reports having had some very successful meetings, and at nearly every one farmers joined up in large numbers.

The members of the local Red Cross are to be heartily congratulated upon their successful work during the past few months. They have done splendidly, far better than many of the towns in Alberta. On June 26th an auction sale was held at the fair grounds, when the following were disposed of:—Hog, donated by G. H. Cooper, sold for $20.00; steer, donated by H. A. Long, sold for $25.00; horse, donated by Paul Boehringer, sold for $50.00. During the month of May $200 was sent to Calgary headquarters and for the month of June the members have the proud record of having sent $250. It is expected that July will reach the high-water mark, however. All the members are displaying the greatest enthusiasm and Winnifred is proud of the work that is being accomplished.

Nore.—The Review is anxious to get reports of meetings, etc., held at Winnifred, and the secretaries of the various organizations will confer a great favor if they will hand in a report of such meetings or gatherings either to its correspondent in Winnifred, Mrs. Harvey Davis, or send by post to the office at Bow Island. All communications, however, sent to Bow Island must be accompanied by the name of the sender to guarantee their authenticity.—ED. REVIEW.

Letter from Bert Harding

3rd Can. Res. Brig. Signal Base,
5th Res. Batt. Seaforth,
Sussex, England.
May 26th, 1918.

My Dear Bob:—

Surprises are coming my way wholesale of late. Mail is arriving constantly from the most unexpected sources. One of the biggest surprises yet, one which honored me greatly, was the arrival of your parcel yesterday. All I was eating my dinner in the hut when the Orderly Corporal threw me a parcel, and when I saw your name on it, I uttered an exclamation which shocked all the boys present. It was a long time before I got over the shock (of surprise), but it was one of the most pleasant surprises I ever had.

Words cannot express my gratitude to you, and my appreciation of your thoughtfulness and kindness. My friends of the prairies are some of the best I have, and I tell you, the friendship of Conquergood is good to conquer.

I have often thought of you, and many and many times have reflected and meditated on those good old days which seem so long ago. I have thought of those cruel yet fascinating plains of the West many a time when I became reminiscent of those glorious times. I call the prairies "cruel" because I think they are, to a man who can't conquer them. If a man defies them, and makes them submit to his wishes, they become fascinating and inspiring to him. The mystery of the hidden, and the lure of the unknown make the prairies wonderful to me. While we are there struggling along for a living we think we are dissatisfied and long to be somewhere else. But that is just a whim of the prairie. I don't know what the prairies take me until after I left them, but some of the most valuable weeks of my life, I spent out there on those vast and lonely plains, and some of my most cherished memories are those which take me back to the experiences of friendships among the pioneer nation builders of that land of noble homesteaders. Gee! You'd think I was giving a lecture or starting a sermon wouldn't you? No, I'm not. I've retired from that profession. I'm just a back private in the army. I haven't preached a sermon since last Sunday at Conquergood, so you can boast of the distinction (?) of listening to my last sermon.

But, I tell you, Bob, I wouldn't erase those three years on the prairies out of my life for anything you could offer. They made a better man of me. If I had my own way, when I get back to Canada, I would train to go out on the prairies as a doctor, not one of those robbers in the machinery of a town or a city, but as a homestead friend and neighbor. "To be one of the boys and a homesteader along with them and to give them medical aid when they needed it. Don't you think a few doctor's of that type are needed out there?"

Well, so much for a few impressions given me by the plains of the West. I could talk for a week on the prairies if anybody would listen to me. I always stick up for Alberta in an argument with the boys. What do you think? Have I got you for a supporter? I expect you want to get back still to dear old Michigan, eh? Good luck!

I suppose you are wondering if I ever intend to tell you anything of my personal history, for the last two years or so.

I arrived in England from Canada two years ago on the 6th of last month. I went to France the beginning of July, 1916, and went to Ypres. From there to the Somme in September, 1916, thence to Vimy Ridge, October, 1916, and stayed there four months. On April 11th, 1917, two days after the taking of Vimy Ridge, by the Canadians, I was invalided back to England with fever and myalgia. I spent about two delightful months in hospital and in July, 1917, came down to Seaford Camp. I managed to get into the Signal Section here and since then have taken courses in signalling. Last February I succeeded in obtaining a first class signaller's certificate and was operating on the Field Runner Phones until a week ago. I then landed a job in the office of the 3rd Can. Res. Bde, Signal Base as a clerk, where I am still employed.

I like signalling very much. I think it is the best job in the army. The course is quite an extensive one, comprising elementary electricity, map reading and topography, theory of telephone and telegraph with their procedures; visual signalling with flags, lamp, heliograph and disc; pneumatic compasses and map location work; aeroplane contact (signalling to and from aeroplanes); pigeon signal service from the front line, and despatch riding, etc.

I shall go back as a signaller which beats bombing—my previous speciality—all to pieces.

Your parcel was a little late reaching me, having been sent to France and back again. It came just at the right time—just when I was longing for a bit of chocolate and cake, which articles are almost impossible to obtain in this country at present. The little matchbox is worth its weight in gold. I certainly appreciate your goodness beyond words, and I must thank you and Mrs. Conquergood. I know she had something to do with it—men can't put up parcels like that—now fess up old man, once again for all the good things.

Kindly remember me to everybody I know. Tell me if Lorne Smaile is still there and give him and Mrs. Smaile my kindest regards.

So bye-bye this time with every good wish for yours and Mrs. Conquergood's welfare.

Write to me when you can.
Your friends for the good old days,
BERT HARDING.
